

Buy side due diligence concluded on Swiss target

Beat Hermann has successfully delivered the findings of a targeted financial due diligence to a private equity advisor. The target is a high potential, top quality Swiss industrial equipment developer and manufacturer, run and owned by its founder seeking a succession solution. The findings include a series of recommendations eventually to be included in the acquisition agreement.

7th August 2015